

Kinnus, (“gathering” in Hebrew) Weekend returns on Memorial Day weekend May 24-27th, 2013. Registration is now open! The event will take place at beautiful Camp Josepho in the Santa Monica Mountains just 30 minutes from the 405 at Sunset Boulevard.

Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouts, Webelos, Boy Scouts, Venturers, Girl Scouts, and their families are invited to experience Jewish Scouting including tons of activities, campfires, and kosher food. Jewish Scouts of all denominations and non-Jewish Scouts and their families are invited.

Kinnus weekend has two parts. The second part, The Kinnus Overnight runs from Sunday, May 26th at 10 AM through Monday, May 27th at 2 PM. The cost is $45 per person and includes:

- Four Kosher meals plus campfire snack
- Campsite for an enjoyable night of camping
- Sunday night campfire
- BB guns, archery, crafts, and lots of other child friendly programming

Registration is now open. See the registration forms beginning on page 4.
Registration and payment are due by Sunday May 12th.

The first part of Kinnus weekend is a Shabbat campout that immediately precedes The Kinnus Overnight. Join us from 6 PM on Friday May 24th through Sunday morning. An Orthodox Shabbat service including Torah reading Saturday morning and a relaxed, unprogrammed afternoon are planned for Saturday. The cost for the Shabbat campout is $60 per person and includes 6 kosher meals, a campfire, and two-night campsite. Contact Stan Friedman at (213) 629-1500 or friedman03@aol.com for more information. Out of respect for all, Shabbat campers must arrive prior to 6 PM in order to have enough time to pitch their tent and otherwise prepare for Shabbat in time.

Notes:

1: These programs may include short rides but are mostly courses about horse care -- participants will have the chance to work with, brush, and be with the horses. Enrollment is limited to 10 per session; first come first served.

2: Contact Stan Friedman at friedman03@aol.com or 213-629-1500 for more information.

3: Cabins are very basic sleeping accommodations. Each sleeps up to eight and are not guaranteed to be exclusive to your party (i.e. you may be sharing them with others). Cabins include bunk beds onto which you unroll a sleeping bag. Linens and towels are not included. Cabins do not have bathrooms but share the same facilities used by all. Cabins are located up the hill behind the lodge. Cabins do have electrical outlets.

4. Financial aid may be available for The Kinnus Overnight. Contact Jeff Feuer at 310-273-8888

Due to road restrictions, and out of courtesy to residents in the area, attendees may arrive no earlier than 8 AM and depart no later than 7:45 pm.

Informed Consent and Hold Harmless/Release Agreement

Release of Liability

I understand that participation in Scouting activities involves a certain degree of risk. I have carefully considered the risk involved and have given consent for myself, my children, family, and my guests (collectively "Participants") to participate in these activities. I understand that participation in these activities is voluntary and agree for all Participants to abide by the rules and standards of the event and Scouting.

The employees, volunteer leaders, volunteer parents, activity coordinators, vendors, related parties and other organizers of the Boy Scouts of America (including the local councils, district offices, Packs, Troops, Venture Units, and Explorer Units) and Girl Scouts of America (including the local Troops and dens) shall be collectively referred to as The Organizers. The Participants hereby release The Organizers from any and all claims or liability arising out of this participation.

I do further agree to indemnify and save harmless the Organizers from all suits or actions brought for, or on account of, any injuries or damages received or sustained by any person, persons, or property by or from the consequences of any act or omission from any and all Participants I have registered for this event.

Permission to Obtain & Use Medical Information and Provide Medical Treatment

I approve the sharing of medical information with BSA volunteers and professionals who need to know of medical situations that might require special consideration for the safe conducting of Scouting activities. In case of an emergency involving me or my child, I understand that every effort will be made to contact a related responsible adult. In the event that this person cannot be reached, permission is hereby given to the medical provider selected by the adult leader in charge to secure proper treatment, including hospitalization, anesthesia, surgery, or injections of medication for me or my child. Medical providers are authorized to disclose to the adult in charge Protected Health Information/ Confidential Health Information (PHI/CHI) under the Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information, 45 C.F.R. §§160.103, 164.501, etc. seq., as amended from time to time, including examination findings, test results, and treatment provided for purposes of medical evaluation of the participant, follow-up and communication with the participant's parents or guardian, and/or determination of the participant's ability to continue in the program activities without restrictions or with special considerations or restrictions listed here:
